Press Release

July 28, 2004

Early this morning, Kervin Davis, age 26, formerly of Hartford, CT was arrested in Hollywood, Florida in connection with a kidnapping and two (2) sexual assaults which occurred in Hartford in 2002. Davis is accused of having forcible sexual intercourse with two females ages thirteen (13) and fourteen (14) who were known to him.

This arrest stems from an extensive investigation conducted by Detective Cheryl Gogins of the Hartford Police Department's Juvenile Investigative Division. Detective Gogins recently was able to track down the whereabouts of Davis who is in the United States illegally from Jamaica. Upon notifying Florida authorities, Davis' information was circulated and he was arrested during a motor vehicle stop. He is being held as a Fugitive from Justice on a $450,000.00 bond awaiting extradition to Hartford.

Once in Hartford, Kervin Davis will face charges of Kidnapping in the First Degree, four (4) counts each of Sexual Assault in the First degree, Sexual Assault in the Second Degree and Risk of Injury to a Minor as well as one count of Threatening. Also, the Immigration and Custom Enforcement Agency (formerly I.N.S.) will be involved due to Davis' illegal status.
